FIELD SERVICE HONORS

The volunteers of the old Field Service needed no greater reward than the privilege of serving France, but incidentally the French army would not let it go at that as the following pages show.

Here is we believe, a complete list of decorations received by volunteers of the American Field Service in both the ambulance and transport sections.

It will be noted that there are one Légion d'Honneur, four Médailles Militaires, two hundred and thirty-two individual Croix de Guerre and seventeen section Citations.

It is interesting to note that fifty-two members of S.S.U. 3 have received the Croix de Guerre; forty-four of S.S.U. 2; forty-three of S.S.U. 1; sixteen of S.S.U. 4; eleven of S.S.U. 8; ten of S.S.U. 15; ten of S.S.U. 29; eight of S.S.U. 13; seven of S.S.U. 28; and six members each of S.S.U. 10; S.S.U. 12; T.M.U. 133, and S.S.U. 18.

A PRIZE OF TWENTY FRANCS
TALES OF THE FIELD SERVICE

Now is the time for some writer in the American Field Service to come to the rescue of twenty francs which the editor of the Bulletin is dangling within reach of the man who turns in the best "word pictures" of life out in the section. The twenty francs will be delivered to its captor at the end of February.

The manuscripts submitted can be either serious or humorous. Every man in the service has numbers of these stories at his tongue's end when you get him talking of the "section out there". Frenchmen, the shells; the food, the natives, the cars; the life at the postes, or en repos, and every unusual incident of the road makes a good sketch.

Not only that, but it is the best way to make impressions permanent. If the stories that are told in the "sessions" at the cantonnement are not written while they are fresh, and recorded somewhere, they will be lost to all the men in the service. Of all things, a lost story is the hardest to find.

The story of the man who put a new back end in a Ford backwards, and then backed the car twenty kilometers rather than have the blessés in danger any longer will always be one of the best of the war, be it true or not. But there are hundreds more just as entertaining, interesting, and illustrative of the service. Each man has one or two. Let's have a flock of them.

FIRST GERMAN PRISONER REACHED

BOSTON HE'S A BIG BLACK WAR DOG

Philip Page of Brookline Brings Home Prize Taken by French in a Battle in Soissons Sector

The first German prisoner brought to the United States landed in Boston on Thanksgiving Day, and is now in special custody of Philip Page of 158 St Paul st, Brookline. The prisoner, however, happens to be a dog, a specially trained German police and war dog, captured at Soissons by the French, interned behind the lines with the other prisoners and eventually bought and brought to America by Mr Page.

The dog's name was Kopf before it was captured after that it was changed to Cop. Cop is a large German shepherd dog, almost black. At the Angell Memorial Hospital it was said that he was at least 18 months old, and not more than six years old, although his exact age is unknown.

Cop served at the front, it is thought, for at least two years in the German trenches, as a watch dog. In between turns at "guard mount" Cop carried brandy and food to the wounded in No Man's Land. He still carries scars and a wound on his paws, received while in service.

Mr Page served for six months in the American Field Service, Camion Branch T. M. 537, driving a motor truck, from July until November of this year. He is undecided about his plans, but may return to France for further service.

Boston Globe, Déc. 15, 1917.

MENTAL TELEPATHY

While the appeal of the Editor for subscriptions was still unprinted copy, responses to same were received. Among them several from old Service men.

Also from Boston comes the following letter: "Enclosed please find order for one dollar to continue my subscription which ends I believe next month. A number of the old gang of "13" have enjoyed the paper very much arriving as it does every week. Sincerely, Robert Treat Knowles."

From Chicago comes these encouraging remarks: "Enclosed please find two dollars for your little Paper. When time expires please let me know and I'll send more. Mrs A. S. Trude."

CITATION

ORDRE DE LA DIVISION N° 20

Le Colonel, commandant provisoirement la 120^e Division, cite à l'Ordre du Régiment :

ENGLISH, R. B., Conducteur volontaire Américain, à la Section Sanitaire Américaine U/29 de la Division :

« Conducteur énergique, courageux et très dévoué, est resté volontairement à la Section comme mécanicien. S'est particulièrement distingué à plusieurs reprises en allant dépanner des voitures de la section chargées de blessés sur la route des Carrières d'HAUDROMONT vue par l'ennemi et violemment bombardée. »

Le Colonel.

SECTION NOTES

January 31, 1918.

Dear Editor,

The other morning, after a rather trying night I wandered into barracks somewhat early. To my surprise I found some of the men in bed.

Strolling through, I stopped at the various bunks which were inhabited, finally arriving at one from which snores were issuing. For a few moments the occupant continued his peaceful pastime. However, at last his eyelids fluttered and seeing his C. O. standing over him he climbed out in somewhat of a hurry.

Then I left the barracks, but as I went out the door I heard the remark, made in a rather sleepy voice of the erstwhile snorer, " Well it isn't often that we are surprised by the enemy. "
