LE FOYER DU SOLDAT
Union Franco-Américaine

Le 19 February, 1918.

Dear Ed :

We have seen the dope about giving diplomas to the A. F. S. men who served before the U. S. entered the war, and to those who completed their engagements before the government absorbed our organization. What about the boys who could not finish their six months before the militarization arrived, yet who stuck by their sections and are here now for the duration of the war? Why not let them wear a mourning-band on their right arm in memory of the privileges which are no longer theirs?

One of THEM.

THE SONG OF THE ALLIES

From Canada's far mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand,
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They're coming to deliver
Our land from Kaiser's reign.

What though with lying phrases
He fain would us beguile
Though treaties are but « paper »
Before his purpose vile?
In vain with slaughtered thousands
Fair fields of France are strewn
The Kaiser in his blindness
Thinks God's for him alone.

Can we, whose homes are lighted,
Where Freedom's torch flames high,
Can we, whose faith is plighted
To Belgium — aid deny?
For vengeance, righteous vengeance.
His treachery proclaim
Till every loyal nation
Abhors the Kaiser's name.

Waft winds Louvain's sad story
And you, ye waters roll,
Till fierce and grim and gory
It spreads from pole to pole
Till in his conquered city,
This War Lord of the slain
This Schemer, King, Arch Traitor
Returns no more to reign.

C. W. W.
